Julia has been with the Yuba College Women's Volleyball program in different roles since 1986. She played under former head coach Thea Post as a setter and outside hitter. She has remained with the program and has worked her way up the ladder starting as an assistant coach in 1988. She then became the 1st assistant in 1997 taking on more responsibilities. Now many years later, she is the head coach for Yuba College.

As a player, Julia received Bay Valley All-Conference Honorable Mention honors for both her volleyball seasons. She also played two seasons of softball for Yuba College under head coach Chris Dokos earning BVC Honorable Mention honors her first year and was selected a BVC All-Conference player her second year as an outfielder.

Julia started coaching club volleyball in 1997 for the Yuba-

Sutter Seminoles. In late 1997, she took over as the club director for the Seminoles and changed the club name to North Valley Jrs VBC. She has coached numerous teams for North Valley in all age groups ranging from 14u-18u; sometimes coaching two teams in one season. Over the years, her teams have won many tournaments in the Power and Area Leagues of the NCVA.

Julia graduated from Wheatland High School where she played four seasons of both volleyball and basketball and three seasons of softball. Julia makes her home in Marysville and teaches various classes part-time in the Kinesiology (Physical Education) Department at Yuba College.
