

The 12th Annual Yuba College

MATH POETRY CONTEST

What: Two typed copies of an original poem that incorporates a math theme or uses language particular to or references to mathematics. All entries will be displayed as submitted. Thus, please submit poems in a typed, clean format, preferably without being folded.

Who: All Yuba College students.

When: Poems must be received no later than Tuesday, April 4th, 2017.

Where: Submit three copies of your poem—with your contact information written on the back of each copy and your name typed on the front—in the marked drop box at the circulation desk in the Yuba College library. OR students may send their poems to John Thoo at Yuba College, 2088 N. Beale Rd. Marysville, CA 95901.

Why: A book prize will be offered for the first place entry. Certificates will be given for first, second, and third place.

Previous winners' entries may be read at:
<http://ms.yccd.edu/math/poetry.html>

MATHEMATICS
is one of the essential emanations of the human spirit, a thing
to be valued in and for itself,
like art or poetry.
-- Oswald Veblen 1924