"Personalities - Understand Them to Understand Us"

What exactly is a personality? What's mine? How is it different from temperament and character? Why is it important to know what mine is and what yours is? Join us to learn the answer to these questions and others you might have. Discover how your personality and the personality of those you love, work with, and deal with in everyday life affect how you relate to each other. Knowing this can help in understanding yourself better, getting along with others better, and feeling happier. by Willa Smith, LPCC
