

NATIONAL HISPANIC HERITAGE SEPT 15-OCT 15 MONTH

Folklórico y Tacos: Get ready for an unforgettable celebration! We're bringing a Grupo Folklórico to campus to showcase the vibrant traditions of Mexico through dance, music, and colorful costumes. Folklórico isn't just performance—it's storytelling. Each dance reflects the unique history, art, and spirit of different regions of Mexico, keeping culture alive and thriving.

Stick around after the show for free tacos and good vibes with friends. Come celebrate, learn, and experience the energy of Mexican heritage in motion!

Celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month: Paint Your Own Cantarito:

Come hang out, get creative, and celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month with us. We'll be painting cantaritos — traditional Mexican clay cups that represent joy, culture, and community. It's a chance to learn about the rich traditions behind these iconic cups while putting your own artistic spin on one. No experience needed, just good vibes and a willingness to have fun. All supplies provided—just bring yourself!

Loteria Game Day & Prizes: Playing Lotería during Hispanic Heritage Month is more than just a throwback to a classic game it's a deep dive into culture, identity, and tradition, all wrapped in a fast-paced, competitive format. Think of it as "Mexican Bingo," but way more colorful, symbolic, and full of meaning. Each card from La Dama to El Nopal represents a piece of Mexican history, daily life, or folklore, sparking conversations about everything from colonial influence on pop culture.
